SINGING SCOTCH SONGS

The Soul of Robert G. Lowe Bade Body Farewell.

NO BETTER WORKER

For Texas and Especially Galveston Ever Existed, No More Enthusiastic Journalist Labored For His People.

Galveston, Jan. 16.—Singing the Scotch songs of his boyhood, conscious to the last, recognizing the members of his family, but with his mind wandering back to the days of his youth, such was the scene attending the death of Major Robert G. Lowe, Monday morning, vice president of A. H. Belo & Co., proprietors of the Galveston-Dallas News.

Mr. Lowe was in his usual health until Saturday morning, when he was stricken with heart failure. He did not receive relief until Saturday afternoon, from which time he rested easy until Monday morning, when he was taken with a more serious attack than the first, and it was apparent that the end was near at hand.

He was one of the best workers for Texas the state has ever had. For more than a generation his influence has gone forth from the press. He was a spirit of fearlessness, justice and liberty which always commanded attention. After the 1890 storm he was active in the councils of the leading citizens of Galveston who took in hand the management of affairs, and in the resurrection of the city he aided in the accomplishment of much that has been done.

Robert G. Lowe was born June 13, 1837, at Brechin, Scotland. He sailed from Glasgow to New Orleans in 1856, when he was nineteen years old. In the early part of April, 1861, he entered the Confederate service at Shreveport as a private in a company known as the Shreveport Greys, a part of Colonel Charles Dreu's battalion. From Shreveport Colonel Dreu, with his command, was ordered to Pensacola and from thence to Virginia, where they took part in the Peninsular campaign, during which Colonel Dreu was killed. Young Lowe was then made one of the guard of honor to accompany Colonel Dreu's body back to Shreveport, after which the command was disbanded. Subsequently Mr. Lowe was made a major, and in that capacity served in the northern portion of Louisiana until the close of the war. After the war he became part owner of the Caddo Gazette, published at Shreveport, where he remained until he came to Galveston in 1874, and became connected with the Galveston News.

The firm of A. H. Belo & Co. was incorporated in 1881, and in 1883 Mr. Lowe was elected vice president, which position he held up to the time of his death. Mr. Lowe was the father of the movement to duplicate the Galveston News at Dallas.

He was a member of the original deep water committee at Galveston. He attended the numerous meetings, which were instrumental in finally securing deep water on the Gulf. He was the author of the resolution leaving it to the board of United States engineers to select the most desirable point on the Gulf for a deep water port. This resolution was indorsed at the Topeka and Denver deep water meetings, and later passed the national congress with practically no change.

Mr. Lowe leaves a wife and four children. He leaves a half-brother at Edinburgh, Scotland, and a nephew, Henry Fraser, at Chicago.

TERRIBLE ACCUSATION

New Jersey Man Is Charged With Murdering Landlord.

LOVED VICTIM'S WIFE

Frank Banasik Gets Thomas Hoff Intoxicated, It Is Alleged, Breaks His Skull and Puts Body on Railroad Track.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 16.—Frank Banasik, an employe of the Edison works at West Orange, was arrested, and, according to the police, confessed to having murdered, a week ago, Thomas Hoff, with whom he boarded, that he might marry Hoff's wife, with whom he was in love. Banasik, it is alleged, said that he had plotted the death of Hoff for many months.

He said, it is alleged, that he resolved on a definite plan of putting Hoff out of the way two weeks ago. A week ago Sunday night, he and Hoff, who work in the same place, and were friendly, were chatting at home, and Banasik challenged his landlord to a drinking bout.

"What shall it be?" asked Hoff.

"Gin," said Banasik.

They went to a saloon and called for the liquor. Banasik filled his own glass with water each time Hoff filled his, and late at night Hoff was overcome by the liquor. He could not take care of himself and Banasik helped him out of the saloon, and started for home with him. They went up the Lackawanna tracks toward Bloomfield. When he was where no one was in sight Banasik raised a mallet and brought it down on the drunken man's head, killing him. Then he carried the body some distance down the tracks and laid it across the rails.

The midnight train cut off both legs of the body, but the engineer saw the body just before his engine struck it. A fracture of the skull pointed to murder and Banasik's arrest and alleged confession followed.

SWALLOWS CARBOLIC ACID.

"Tell Them I Died With a Broken Heart," Said Note Left.

Shreveport, Jan. 16.—The body of a man alleged to be Mike Dolan of Dallas, Tex., was found in a room on the third floor of the Cooley hotel here. Death was self-inflicted by swallowing carbolic acid. The man registered at the hotel several times under names C. A. Jones, Carlee Jones and Clark Jones. He entered the room Saturday at noon and shortly after is supposed to have committed suicide. He had been dead about two days before being discovered. He had nailed up the windows, locked the door, removed the knob and left a note saying: "Tell them I died with a broken heart." There was nothing to identify him except a letter addressed to Clark Jones, Freemont, Mich.

SUED BY NEGRO.

Army Officer Is Charged With False Imprisonment.

El Reno, Okla., Jan. 16.—W. A. Baker, a negro saloon and storekeeper, has instituted suit against Major Abercrombie of the Twenty-first infantry at Fort Reno for $16,000 for alleged false imprisonment and injury to his business. Baker was imprisoned from Dec. 16, 1905, to Dec. 21, 1905, for some alleged violation of the law. Baker alleges that the officer ordered the soldiers to stop trading at his store and his trade decreased $7,500.

THE MORNING EAGLE

Entered at the Postoffice as second class mail matter.

BY CARNES & WALLACE.

Per Week, 15c - Per Month, 40c

BRYAN, TEXAS, JAN. 17, 1906.

A PLEASING FRATERNAL SENTIMENT.

It gives the Eagle great pleasure to acknowledge with sincere appreciation the following fraternal expression from our esteemed neighbor, the Brazos Pilot:

Mr. W. P. Connelly, one of the proprietors and publishers of the Bryan Eagle has sold his interest in the office to Mr. M. E. Wallace who has been foreman of the office for several years. The paper and printing business will be continued by Messrs. Carnes & Wallace, and it is needless to say the high standard heretofore reached will be maintained. They have the very best wishes of the Pilot for continued success.

Other duties and business interests incident thereto is assigned by Mr. Connelly as a reason for disposing of his interest. He has formed a partnership with Mr. O. R. Young of El Paso and they have purchased a printing plant in that city and assumed charge of same.

Mr. Connelly will return to El Paso at once and his family will join him there later. The removal of this family from Bryan is a distinct loss both in the social realm and the material welfare of the city. Mr. Connelly is a man of practical and advanced ideas, full of energy and push, and was at all times in the front rank of those who were working for the city's advancement. Especially will he be missed from the directorship of the Central Texas Fair.

The Pilot earnestly wishes him and his family happiness and prosperity in their new home, and in so saying, feels that it but voices the sentiment of the entire citizenship.

TRIBUTE TO COL. R. G. LOWE.

To The Eagle:

In connection with everyone who ever knew Col. R. G. Lowe, I regret and deplore his death as a great loss to his friends and the state. No man within my memory ever exerted himself more for the upbuilding of Texas than R. G. Lowe. As a soldier of the Shreveport Grays he was like Bayard of old; so he has been during his connection with the Galveston News—without fear and without reproach. As a former member of my military family, I beg to offer this tribute to his many excellent qualities.

MONROE EDGE

We have been working for two months digging up bargains, and have turned down everything that is not a bargain. In other words—we positively refuse to list property unless the owner wishes to sell at its value. The land business is the same as dry goods or groceries; it does not pay to advertise when the price is too high. But by cutting the price and also advertising we expect to be able to bring the purchaser and seller together. We have the following special bargains to offer to-day, which can be used at our advantage by both speculator or home-seeker.

Five lots and a three room house two blocks from I. & G. N. depot at $400.00.

One 4 room house and one 3 room house with two acres in city limits at $450.00.

25x50 feet lying between the White furniture store and railroad. A splendid location for a warehouse. Make me an offer.

Three houses and one full lot in "Bon ton" part of city—the cheapest thing ever offered in Bryan.

Other city property cheap. Also a large list of farm lands. In fact, if you want to speculate or invest in a home you will lose money by not seeing us.
